The Energy of 11 — Intuition, Connection, and the Bonds That Teach Us

Written by Donetta Huffman

Welcome to fall!

As November arrives, we enter the 11th month, a time filled with inspiration and intuitive insight. The number 11 carries a vibration of inner strength, creativity, originality, and boundless energy. It's often called the "Intuitive Master Number," reminding us to trust our instincts and listen closely to the quiet wisdom that guides us.

This energy has always held deep meaning for me — especially when it comes to the relationships that shape our lives. And sometimes, those teachers come to us on four legs.

Many years ago, my son brought home a beautiful Golden Retriever named Kentucee. I hadn't planned on being a dog person — in fact, I didn't think I was one at all! But Kentucee had other plans. Over the years, he completely changed my heart and perspective. He had a Life Path 11, and I'm convinced he knew over 400 words and commands. He radiated the purest 11 energy: compassionate, sensitive, and always bringing people together. Like many 2/11s, he just wanted everyone to love one another. Fittingly, Kentucee lived to be 11 years old — a perfect reflection of the vibration he embodied.

WHAT'S IN THIS MONTH'S ISSUE:

- The Energy of 11
- Upcoming Offerings

Our current dog, Roswell, carries that same loving frequency. His 11 Soul gives him a depth of feeling that's remarkable — he senses emotions before anyone says a word. Just like Kentucee, Roswell's purpose seems to be unity through empathy. It's as if these animals come to remind us that love, connection, and intuition are the true languages of the soul.

That belief — that every being has a purpose — extends beyond my own pets. A few years ago, I was invited by radio host Maryam Faresh to appear on her show "What About Daisy?" Maryam had heard about my work as the author of the Semi-Circle Numerology Cards and the readings I'd done for her and her incredible companion, Daisy.

Daisy is a dog unlike any other: both blind and deaf, yet full of life, curiosity, and joy. Through numerology, we discovered that Daisy has a 4 Destiny, the same number as Maryam's Life Path 4. Those who carry 4 energy are strong, grounded, and driven by a powerful sense of justice — especially for those who cannot speak for themselves. Together, Maryam and Daisy beautifully express the higher side of that number: commitment, compassion, and unwavering determination.

Maryam's journey hasn't been easy. Her 4 Life Path carries a Karmic Debt, often bringing obstacles that test faith and endurance. But witnessing her courage, especially when Daisy faced eye surgery shortly after our first show, reminded me of how strength and love always find a way. Maryam's continued work — including her book "What About Daisy?" — reflects her mission to help special-needs children and animals, turning challenges into acts of service and advocacy.

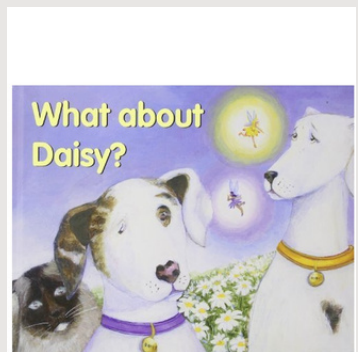

From Kentucee and Roswell to Maryam and Daisy, I see the same message repeating: we are all connected by purpose and energy. Numerology helps us understand those connections — why certain souls find their way into our lives, and how their energy complements our own. Our pets have lessons and assignments, just as we do, and their numbers often reveal the deeper spiritual agreements between us.

So, as we move through this beautiful 11 month, I invite you to slow down, listen to your intuition, and notice the special bonds that bring meaning to your days — whether they come in human form or with wagging tails and wet noses.

If you'd like to explore your own numerology or discover your pet's soul purpose, I'd love to help you uncover those insights. Understanding these vibrations can bring greater harmony, healing, and love into both your life and theirs.

Wishing you a heartfelt, intuitive, and joy-filled November,

Donetta Huffman
